PROFILE

An ambitious, capable and agile senior legal practitioner with a demonstrated history of focus and accomplishment with regards to conceiving, setting and surpassing both personal and corporate goals. Through a balance of academia and "hands on" experience, I have attained valuable and transferable legal technical competencies that include a highly developed goal orientation, effective team leadership and efficient task prioritisation. This mix of skills is complimented by a practical orientation to business that distinguishes, and separates, the desirable from the possible. I am well positioned to assume positions that provide corporate legal oversight for public and private organisations.
